This is the last week of Lent and Astoria society will once more be in evidence.

A new invoice of Eastman's celebrated Kodaks and supplies received at the Owl drug store.

Andrew Hoff, who has been confined to his home with pneumonia, has sufficiently recovered to be out again.

See the window display in the Owl Drug Store of the celebrated Eastman Kodaks and supplies. New stock just received.

Yesterday was a very quiet one at the county clerk's office. There were no marriage licenses issued or new citizens made.

Captain Pickens is building a new warehouse at the foot of Twelfth street where all freight for the steamer can be left with safety.

The American ship Berlin with canneries supplies and about 75 fishermen from Astoria was towed to sea yesterday, bound for Alaska.

R. M. Gaston, at his feed stable No. 195 14th street, offers for sale a Landis harness machine; one butcher's wall scales, will be sold cheap.

According to the Seaside Signal, the railroad will be completed and logs hauled to the Seaside mill within 30 days. Some of the people of Seaside do not appreciate the value of the saw mill.

Wilson Bros. of Uniontown have broken the record for building fishing boats this season. They have constructed 35 boats during last fall and winter and have contracts for 10 more, four of which are to be equipped with gasoline engines.

The funeral of the late James Jenkins was held yesterday afternoon from Pohl's undertaking parlors. The interment was at Greenwood.

W. J. Hess has opened the cleanest and best appointed restaurant in Astoria at 130 Eleventh street. The best the market, and the promptest service.

R. M. Gaston carries a full and complete line of wagons, buggies, plows, harrows and all kinds of farm tools and machinery at 105 Fourteenth street, Astoria, Ore.

The Holiday property at Seaside will be sold on April 28. It was sold about a month ago, but at the last moment another party offered a larger price and a new sale was ordered.

Dr. Earle, quarantine officer, will leave tomorrow morning on the Alliance for coast points to make an investigation of the quarantine stations and appoint health officers.

Families desiring either Colonial or Shalwater bay oysters can always secure them fresh at the Imperial oyster house, which makes a specialty of supplying families or parties.

The Major Guy Howard, the quartermaster's steamer, took a team to Vancouver Sunday to enter the field sports at that place. On their way down she stopped at Cathlamet, where the team played a game of ball with the Cathlamet nine, defeating them by a score of 14 to 4.

The members of the county court yesterday took a trip over the Lewis and Clark bridge and road to Seaside to ascertain what was necessary to put the road and bridge in condition for travel. They will hold a session of the court this morning at which time the report will be made. They will also decide upon the improvement of the Smith's point road.

Another Monday has gone and the supreme court has not rendered a decision in the Clatsop county court house case. No reason is assigned why the decision has not been rendered.

The run of salmon the past two days has been unusually small, the highest boat only averaging about 200 pounds. This indicates that the salmon have not commenced to come into the river.

District Attorney Allen yesterday filed a suit against Anton Peterson to condemn 270 fathoms of a fishing net picked up by the patrol boat on March 17 while engaged in illegal fishing. The suit asks that the net be sold as provided by law.

Dirt cheap: Three good second-hand sewing machines; must be sold Monday and Tuesday. Two machines, slightly used, will be sold at big discount. New machines for rent. Expert repair a specialty. Singer Sewing Machine Co., 121 10th street, Astoria.

Captain Gregory and the Heather will leave Friday on an inspection tour of Alaskan ports. Chief Engineer McGregor has resigned to accept a position on the steamer Arago employed in the coast survey service. The Heather expects to be absent about two months.

The receipts from the police court matinee yesterday afternoon amounted to $33. Tony Moody, Ed. Williams and John Pisola each forfeited $10 for being drunk, and Ed Williams forfeited $5 for the same offense. Wesley Smith, guilty of being a vagrant, was fined $50 or 30 days in jail.

Peter Wald was brought down from a logging camp Sunday suffering from mental aberration of the mind and was turned over to Sheriff Linville. He was similarly affected about two years ago, but his relatives took care of him and he soon recovered.

There was no excursion train from Portland last Sunday at $1 for the round trip and there will be none at that price this summer. Such excursions are of no benefit to Seaside. Only the cheap skates take advantage of Sunday excursions of that kind.

Sheriff Linville has procured a list of all the men living with lewd women in the city and will strictly enforce the law passed at the late session of the legislature, when it goes into effect. A half dozen of these vagrants left the city yesterday morning. Living with a woman of that character is made a penitentiary offense.

Reports from the upper river are to the effect that Frank Seufert operated four seines on the natural spawning grounds of the Chinook salmon, but only caught two fish. It is to be hoped that a governor will be elected next time that will not veto a bill intended for the protection of the fishing industry.

Rev. J. W. Clappett, D. D., of Trinity church, San Francisco, will be at Gearhart Park from May 11 to May 13 and will deliver a series of lectures before the Northwestern university. He is an eloquent and forcible speaker. During his stay in Astoria he will be the guest of Rev. William Seymour Short.

Senator Fulton is trying to arrange a meeting between Major Langfett of the United States engineer corps and the bar pilots to consider the practicability of continuing the work of grading the bar. Senator Fulton is in favor of it, as is also Mr. McKenzie, chief of engineers. It is thought the meeting will be a success and the work of grading on the bar will be continued.

An alarm of fire was turned in yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, occasioned by a chimney in the Parker house burning out. The immense volume of smoke which settled on the roof gave the impression that the building was on fire and a general alarm was turned in calling out the entire department. It was extinguished without the assistance of the department and no damage was done.

Fish Warden Van Dusen has been notified that W. W. Smith, water bailiff on the Willamette and Clackamas rivers, had captured 12 set nets and one drift net during the spring close season, and that they had been shipped to Astoria and condemnation proceedings will be commenced to have them sold. Evidently the up river fishermen have no respect for the law, but they will quit looser this year.

A meeting of Seaside lodge, A. O. U. W. has been called for next Saturday night for the purpose of discussing plans for forming an independent lodge and withdrawing from the grand lodge of Oregon. It is considered absolutely necessary to devise some new plan and cut loose from the grand lodge if the local lodge is to remain in existence, as a large number of members will undoubtedly pull out if the present high assessment is enforced.

The Occident tonsorial parlors and Everything modern and up to date bath facilities are equalled by none. See Peterson.

Dr. Frank Vaughn went out to Geo. McFarland's, near Green mountain, Sunday, ostensibly after a cayuse, but in fact to go fishing. He found a cat that had swallowed a fish hook, bait and all, and after performing a difficult surgical operation on the cat by removing the hook, he went fishing. He brought back 151 of the speckled beauties, caught by the boys in appreciation of saving the feline's life. The fish were distributed among his many friends. Dec don't eat fish.

In this day of adulteration of food products, especially in canned goods, pure, fresh milk has become an important subject. The Sloop, Jeffers Co. propose to set forth a small display advertisement, beginning in this paper today, a good and sufficient reason every week, why milk sold by them should continue in popular favor. The advertisement will appear daily and will be changed every Tuesday. The management of The Morning Astorian is not surprised to find business men in every line who appreciate the advertising value of its display columns.
